St. Michael the Archangel

Dear members and supporters of the Marian Blessing Circle!
In our newsletter you will find a devotional sheet with a prayer to St. Michael the Archangel.
We recommend all to pray this prayer to the angel every day.
How was this prayer born?

„It happened on a day in December 1884 or in January 1885 in the Vatican in the private chapel of Leo XIII. After celebrating Holy Mass, the Pope attended as usual a second mass. Towards the end of the Mass he suddenly lifted his head and focused with his eyes on a single spot over the tabernacle, without blinking; he looked in the direction with an expression of astonishment and consternation. The Pope's face paled and his facial features became tense. After the Mass, Leo XIII stood up and still deeply shocked hurried into his office. A prelate of his ambit asked him: ‚Holy Father, are you feeling well? Do you need help?‘ ‚No‘, answered Leo XIII., ‚I am feeling good...‘ The Pope locked himself in his office. Half an hour later he called the secretary of the Sacred Congregation of Rites and gave him a sheet ordering him to print and to send it to all the bishops of the world. →

St. Michael in stained glass window by Franz Mayer & Co. Quis ut DEUS? („Who is like GOD?“) is on his shield.

What information contained this sheet? It was a prayer to St. Michael the Archangel, which was composed by Leo XIII himself. A prayer that the priests should pray at the end of each Low Mass kneeling on the steps to the altar “.

(taken from the book of Georges Huber: Weiche Satan! Der Teufel heute, [Get away Satan! The devil today], Stein am Rhein 1997, page 17.)

After the reformation of the Mass, the prayer was omitted, however, it was not prohibited. If somebody wants to pray it, he or she should do it after the Holy Mass or at home. Pope Leo XIII was able to take a look in our times. And he reacted immediately: He invoked the help of the powerful Archangel Michael, who highlights the First Commandment with his name (Who is likened to God?) and fights against demonic powers. Let's form an alliance with this angel and with his heavenly hosts! We shall not forget that the Triune God is also the Lord of our times. We should not be fearful. God is almighty! And His angels help Him – and us!

The Lord may send His Holy angels to you, He may strengthen and keep you save, be with you and bless you + in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

*Your priest
Monsignor Michael Haupt*

PS: The Executive Board of the Blessing Circle has asked me if I could assume the position of the president of this community. I have accepted. I myself am a supporter of the Blessing Circle since 2002. After many years serving as a church leader in the archdiocese in Cologne, I am now parochial vicar in Zülpich/Veytal, Germany. I would be glad to bless you when I pray the Marian Antiphon of the Complete.
